What Matters Most?
Advance Care Planning Checklist

There are many steps you can take to keep the conversation going!

☐ Make a list of the three most important things you want those close to you to know about your wishes for end-of-life care.

☐ Think about who you would want to make your medical care decisions for you if you could not speak for yourself.

☐ Plan when and where you might want to talk to that person and others close to you about your wishes.

☐ Make a list of questions you’d like to ask your doctor.

☐ Fill out an Advance Directive form to record your wishes and legally appoint the person (agent) who will speak for you if you can’t speak for yourself.

☐ Make copies of your Advance Directive and give them to your agent, your doctor, and anyone else you would like to know your wishes.

☐ If you already have an Advance Directive, review it to make sure it fits with your current wishes.

☐ Talk with those close to you about their wishes.
